

Searching for open classrooms in 25Live:

1. Navigate to 25LivePro at this link: <https://25live.collegenet.com/pro/pitt#!/home/dash>. (You do not need to sign in.)

The screenshot shows the top navigation bar of the 25Live Pro system, including the University of Pittsburgh logo and user options like 'Guest', 'Sign In', and 'More'. Below the navigation bar, there are search filters for 'Go to Search' and 'Recently Viewed'. The main content area is divided into two sections: 'Public Location Searches' on the left and 'Quick Search' on the right. The 'Public Location Searches' section lists various campus locations such as 'All Departmental Priority Rooms', 'All Locations', 'All Registrar Rooms', and 'Chevron Science Center (CHVRN)'. The 'Quick Search' section contains three search input fields: 'Search Events', 'Search Locations', and 'Search Organizations'.

2. Under the “Public Location Searches” section on the left-hand side, scroll down to the “STUDENT STUDY SPACES” search and click on it:

3. Once the search is open, select the “Availability” option:

4. Now you can scroll through the list of classrooms in alphabetical order to find an available classroom in your preferred building:

The screenshot displays a calendar view of classroom availability for Monday, April 17, 2023. The interface includes a navigation bar with 'List', 'Calendar', 'Availability', and 'Availability Weekly' options. A 'Legend' button and an 'Include Requested' checkbox are also visible. The calendar grid shows the time from 6 AM to 12 AM across days 6 through 11. Each row represents a classroom, with its name listed on the left and its availability status shown in the grid. The 'Availability' column (day 10) shows that most classrooms are 'Closed', with some green blocks indicating availability. The 'Availability Weekly' column (day 11) shows that all classrooms are 'Closed'.
