

Sustainability Distinction

Undergraduate students: Address pressing social and environmental challenges and earn a Sustainability Distinction!

Complete course work, participate in high-impact sustainability activities and Outside the Classroom Curriculum/Student Office of Sustainability experiences, write a reflection essay, and earn official recognition for your work.

Academic Coursework

Outside-the-classroom
Experiences

Capstone
Activities

Interdisciplinary
Transcript
Distinction

Questions?

Outside the Classroom Experiences: occ@pitt.edu

High-impact Activities: Mark Collins, Kenneth P. Dietrich School of Arts and Sciences, mjc@pitt.edu

Courses, Reflection Essay and General Information: Ellie Cadden, Mascaro Center for Sustainable Innovation, e.cadden@pitt.edu

Benefits of Earning the Sustainability Distinction

- Earn notation of your achievement on your academic transcript.
- Receive a digital catalog of your work with a unique URL that you can use on your resume and networking sites and share with prospective employers and recruiters.
- Build a portfolio with academic, professional, and service-oriented experiences.
- Develop the skills to critically think about how what you learn inside the classroom can be applied to your experience in the world.

Enroll Now!

1. Log into my.pitt.edu and search or select the OCC task to access Suitable.
2. Search in the activities tab for Sustainability Distinction Declaration.
3. Complete the online form.

Visit the Mascaro Center for Sustainable Innovation at engineering.pitt.edu/mcsi to learn about additional academic offerings for students interested in sustainability.

